The Department

Chair of the Department:

John Leyden

Supervisor of Graduate Studies:

Marvin Glass

The Department of Philosophy offers programs of study leading to the degree of Master of Arts.

Qualifying-Year Program

Applicants who do not hold an honours degree (or the equivalent) will be required to register in a qualifying-year program before proceeding to the master's program.

The regulations governing the qualifying year are outlined in the general section of this calendar.

Master of Arts

Admission Requirements

The minimum requirement for admission to the master's program is an honours B.A. degree (or the equivalent) in Philosophy, with at least B+ standing or the equivalent.

Qualifying-year and M.A. applicants from an institution other than Carleton University must submit two papers.

Program Requirements

The specific program requirements for master's candidates are the following:

- Philosophy 32.580 Graduate Seminar
- A thesis equivalent to two full-course credits, which must be defended at an oral examination; or a research essay equivalent to one full-course credit
- Four half-course credits (or six in the case of students following the research essay option), a minimum of two by tutorial, in at least three of the following study areas: studies in the history of philosophy; studies in the work of an individual philosopher; studies in logic, epistemology, or metaphysics; studies in selected problems in philosophy.

Other Courses

A maximum of one full course (or the equivalent) may be selected from those offered at the 400 level, or in a related field, or at another university.

Each year, the department offers 400-level undergraduate half courses, which are open to students in the qualifying year and, with permission, to students in the M.A. program. For courses offered in 1993-94, please consult the Undergraduate Calendar.

Graduate Courses*

The following graduate courses are open to students in the M.A. program and, with permission, to students in the qualifying-year program. In tutorial courses, at least five two-hour tutorial sessions will be required.

Please note that not all courses are offered every year. Students should consult the University and departmental timetables published early in July for a list of courses offered in 1993-94 and their scheduling.
